

THE NAVY.

The Naval Training Board, after a recess of two weeks, has again convened at the Marine Barracks, Brooklyn. It is composed of the following members:—Commander William H. Murray, President; Commander William G. Nicholson, Commander Charles B. Rogers, Surgeon Benjamin R. Thayer, Surgeon George Macleay, Judge Advocate General, and the following:—

Baroness de la Roche, wife of the late Admiral Sir John de la Roche, who was killed at the battle of Trafalgar, and who was buried at sea, was present at the meeting. The noble vessel has been thoroughly overhauled, and her appearance is improved by the addition of several new appointments, which will be placed on her tomorrow when she will be ready to receive the guests.

The arrival here, after her brilliant career on the Mississippi river, of the tugboat "August," having nearly two hundred and fifty tons of the engine on her. Her crew being completed, she was put in commission again on the 15th of December, 1883. From that time until today she was waiting for a crew, which she received from that of the Niagara.

The members of the "New York Club" who are in good condition, two risks were forced yesterday, and the brawny Scotchmen amused themselves in their work of muscular exercise. There are some matches under consideration to come off on the Park during the winter, but as yet the time has not been definitely fixed for playing the game.

Coroners' Inquests.

The inquest in the case of Charles Murray (colored), who was shot dead at the dance house on 111 Avenue street on New Year's night, was concluded yesterday by Coroner Wilby. The testimony, which was quite voluminous, pointed to Geo. Dierd (also colored) as the perpetrator of the deed, and he was held to await the action of the Grand Jury. The prisoner is a Canadian, living at Bay Ridge, L. I., and by advice of his counsel, refused to answer any questions put to him by the Coroner respecting his participation in the affray.

A Chinaman named Joseph Edward Lawley, a child about two years old, was burned to death at No. 60 5th Avenue, on Sunday afternoon, by his clothes catching fire at the stove during the temporary absence of the nurse. Coroner Collins held an inquest.

John Hendrickson, the unknown woman, who was frozen to death at the corner of Mulvey and Leonard street on Saturday night, was buried at St. Mary's Church, Perth Amboy, N. J., yesterday. She was about thirty-two years of age, and was apparently connected.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Monday, Jan. 4—6 P. M.

The market was rather dull this morning, and prices could not be considered on the whole as sustained. All the Western railroad shares, with the single exception of Chicago and Rock Island, dropped. Harlem advanced 1/4, Hudson River 1/4, Reading 1/4, and Rock Island 1/4. New York Central declined 1/4, Erie preferred 1/4, Cleveland and Toledo 1/4, Toledo and Wabash 1/4, Michigan Southern 1/4, Chicago and Northwestern 1/4, Galena and Chicago 1/4, Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien 1/4, and Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne 1/4. The market in the afternoon did not exhibit any improvement, and prices generally fell off a fraction.

We continue our table of totals of the various statements of the associated banks of this city, commencing on October 17, that being the day upon which the late accounting commenced, which steadily thereafter continued down to December 12, when a week of relaxation succeeded, only to be followed by another turn in the former direction.
